Meeting called to order by Amy Wasinger; Prayer was led by Fr. Kevin Minutes for the March meeting were approved as submitted

Pastor's Report - (Father Kevin) -

- All the parishes will be celebrating First Communion this weekend.
- Had a very good turnout for Divine Mercy Sunday.
- Father Kevin will continue to serve the IHM Parish as confirmed by the Bishop

Principal's Report - (Rachel Wentling) -

- Continuing to pray for rain with the elementary children
- There will be a Strategic Planning Team meeting for the public on Tuesday, May 13 at 5:30 pm at IHM. Representatives from the HFE Advisory Council will be joining the Strategic Planning committees.
- Next year's curriculum needs are a new religion series, an updated English Language Arts series with a good phonics emphasis, and an updated Shurley English series. The curriculum committee hopes to make a decision by May 19.
- As of the end of March, it appears that HFE will end the year $38,000 in the black. At this point there are no specific plans for using the surplus. Some ideas are putting it towards the needed curriculum upgrades and technology needs.
- We are looking at making a change to the morning drop off policy. The specific details will be explained at a later date.

Committee Reports -

- None

Old Business -

- Election of Officers: Melissa Rome will continue as president, Amy Wasinger will continue as Vice President, and Pam Dreiling will continue as secretary

New Business -

- Committee Chair list -The plan is to add two new committees: A Morning Arrival Committee and a School Security and Safety Committee

Adjourned - Closing prayer was led by Rachel Wentling
